Thank You for Voting Us One of the Best Home Fuel Companies!

EXCELLENT, OUTSTANDING, and ADMIRABLE are words that let us know something is more than just "okay". These three words fall in the same class as the word Sterling and recognized as being beyond ordinary. Over three decades ago in 1983, Sterling Oil Company was named intentionally.

H. Wayne Beeler along with the support of his loving wife Rachel Beeler and family started Sterling Oil Company 35 years ago. Mr. & Mrs. Beeler sacrificed, worked tirelessly, overcame obstacles, and dedicated several decades of their lives to Sterling Oil Company. No matter how difficult, they strived to provide good service to their customers and community.

As the company grew over the years the support of his children, Donna and Mike, along with the years of dedication from the employee's to further and strengthened his support system. In 2005 Sterling Oil Company purchased J.W. Harvey & Son's and merged the Customer Accounts also providing continued employment to the employee's, increasing the Customers base and Staff. Mr. Beeler, and his Christian beliefs along with being a Veteran of the United States Air Force and his strong work ethic, he continues to instill the importance of customer service, ensuring the customers are satisfied and serviced in a timely manner. Sterling Oil Company intends to hold onto this unique aspect of their business.

People that are looking for more than just service and appreciate a business willing to go the extra mile, those are people that prefer Sterling Oil Company. You get more with Sterling Oil Company. They build relationships with their customers. It's almost like gaining an extended family, so you can expect to be treated and receive the Sterling Experience "They Make it Happen".
